A Munney.-Information was brought to the Station-house by a party of natives returning to town, of the finding of the body of a murdered man by the road-side at Kalauso, near the ranch of Capt. J. Meek. The murdered man was an Indian named Rosslio, and was employed by Capt. Mgek as a bullock-catcher. Yesterday a party headed by Mr. Eli Meek were driving cattle, and while on the way to the ranch and near the road leading through Kalanao Gulch, two of the antedijuvian, party fell behind the main body, one a Mexican. and the other the unfortunate Rosalio. Soon after, the party who gave the above information came along and met the Mexican and asked him by an American lady. (knowing him to be employed on the ranch) where the rest of the party had gone, and were of the International Society held its first public asswered evasively, which, with evidence of meeting this morning blood on his person, aroused their suspicions that some dark deed had been committed. They came upon the murdered man, who lay weltering in his own blood, which flowed from several knife wounds, from which he soon after died. Upon hearing the facts as given above, Deputy Marshal Dayton and Dr. Trousseau started for the scene of the murder, where they will hold an inquest on the body before its removal and in-

COLLECTOR GENERAL'S OFFICE Honolulu, Sept. 27th, 1872. Sin: I inclose herewith to your Excellency the Tables of the principal exports for the third quarter, and also for the nine months of this year, as compared with the exports for same period of last year. The Tables show an increase in the exports of Paddy, Rice, Pot, Bananas, Cotton, Hides, Puln, and Pennuts, and a decrease in Sugar, Molasses, Coffie, Salt, Fungus, Beef, Goat-skins, Tallow, Wool, Whale and Sperm Oil, with a decrease in value of 8206.565.71

Nearly the whole of this is the short crop of Sugar and the non-export of any domestic Oil. I have the honor to be, Sir.

Your Excellency's Most Ob't Servant, Collector-General.
